

QoreUltima Intelligent Electronic Document and Record Management (EDRMS)

QoreUltima is an intelligent electronic information, document and records management system (EDRMS) for managing both digital objects (electronic documents, processes, etc.) and physical inventories (containers, files, archives, works of art, objects, people, etc.).

Intelligent document management

Diverse content management
Document, image, video, audio

Data classification and organization

Federated search

Identification of personal information

Legal and regulatory compliance

Protection of information

Sharing and collaboration

Management of information assets according to applicable regulations

M365 integration

MS TEAMS / MS Sharepoint integration

MS Outlook integration

Automatic classification

De-classification to QoreUltima Vault

API REST connectivity

Search QoreUltima content from MS Sharepoint

Azure architecture

Scalable, state-of-the-art solution architecture

Automation

Automatic Semantic Enrichment

Automation of classification processes

Automated classification (invoices, purchase orders, tender documents, etc.)

Connectivity with SAGE, CRM and other ERPs

Digitization connector

Automated classification of network directories

MS Outlook connectivity for automatic document classification

Distribution of your documents such as by-laws, resolutions and policies

QOREULTIMA KEY FEATURES

- A flexible, modular concept 100% WEB designed and simplified for end users
- Highly secure environment for your documents
- Best practices for Records Management (RM) and IIM
- Cost and processing time savings
- Reduced demands on human, financial and material resources
- Records disposition schedule
- Multilingual
- Instant access anytime, anywhere
- Semantic technology delivers actionable business intelligence
- Manage and oversee document destruction and retention, in line with legal, financial and operational obligations
- Personal information (PII) is secured with full access control